

You are kindly invited to an online training event on inter- and transdisciplinary collaboration involving the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, taking place on 2 November 2021, from 10 to 12 (CET). Please register here at your earliest convenience:

This event is a joint initiative of the Coimbra Group and the SHAPE-ID project, a Coordination and Support Action funded by the European Commission's Horizon 2020 Framework Programme and coordinated by Trinity College Dublin, to address the challenge of improving inter- and transdisciplinary collaboration involving the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences (SSH integration).

The purpose of this training event is to introduce you to the toolkit Pathways to Inter- and Transdisciplinary Research (www.shapeidtoolkit.eu) – developed by the SHAPE-ID project and launched on 10 June. You will also be introduced to some of the resources that will be valuable for research performing organisations and their communities, with opportunities for Q&A with attendees.

Following the webinar, we invite those interested in discussing the project and toolkit and sharing their experiences of the challenges of supporting SSH integration, to join a follow-on 30-minute interactive meeting with the organisers.

The training will be delivered by Professor Catherine Lyall and Dr Isabel Fletcher from the University of Edinburgh, who led the development and delivery of the toolkit and its resources.

Attendees are encouraged to look at the toolkit in advance of the meeting, if possible, to get the most out of the Q&A and discussion sessions.

Agenda (all times are CET):

- 10.00 - 10.20 (20 mins) Pathways to SSH integration: The SHAPE-ID Toolkit - SSH integration, the SHAPE-ID project, designing the toolkit)
